

GUITAR

Adjudicator: Richard Durrant

Richard Durrant has given solo recitals at venues throughout Europe including concerto appearances with many orchestras such as the RPO. His strong musical vision, both as performer and composer, has created a richly diverse musical journey which routinely takes him from major venues such as the Royal Albert Hall to open air festivals or the smallest rural hall without breaking stride.

Richard has released several solo albums and composed for many different ensembles. He has collaborated with musicians from classical, folk and jazz backgrounds and also written widely for television and film (he can currently be heard playing the ukulele behind the popular BBC1 skating penguins logo).

When not performing, Richard runs "LongMan Records" an acoustic label reflecting his wide musical interests and beliefs. Amongst many other releases on the label he produced the seminal "The Secret of Life" by the Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain.

Richard's latest album "Recuerdos – Guitar Classics" was awarded 5 stars by Classic FM Magazine. It is available as a double sided CD/DVD (LongMan049DAVD).
