Adjudicator: David Bruce-Payne, BMus, FRCO(CHM), ARCM

Formerly a chorister at King's College, Cambridge, David Bruce-Payne later studied at the Royal College of Music with Herbert Howells and Douglas Guest. Whilst there, he was awarded the W.T. Best Memorial Scholarship given by the Worshipful Company of Musicians, enabling further organ study in Germany.

Appointments held include Second Assistant Organist at Westminster Abbey and Music Master at the Choir School, Organist and Master of the Choristers at Birmingham Cathedral and Director of Music at King Edward's School. He was formerly Senior Lecturer at Birmingham Conservatoire and Director of Music at St. George's Church, Edgbaston. Organ recital and Choral conducting tours have been undertaken in the United States of America, Canada, Germany and the West Indies. He has also performed as soloist with the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra. Improvisation is one of his particular interests.

David is an examiner for the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music, both in Britain and overseas. He is also an adjudicator member of the British Federation of Music Festivals and works extensively throughout the United Kingdom and abroad. Many compositions of Church music by him have been published, with several performances on BBC Radio.

He is now living in Dorset where he is continuing to freelance as a performer, adjudicator and examiner..
