

CHORAL

Adjudicator: Peter Wells

Peter Wells is an Adjudicator Member of the British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech. Peter adjudicated his first music festival while still a student at the University of Auckland. After postgraduate study in the Netherlands in the early 1990s, Peter moved to Northern Ireland and began working with UK festivals: first as a specialist recorder adjudicator and latterly as a general adjudicator with specialisms in vocal and choral classes. Since his first festival in Northern Ireland, the large Newry Feis, he has worked for the Portadown Festival, Carrickfergus Festival, Ballyclare Festival, Feis Fermanagh, Blackheath Festival, Oxford Festival and Lytham St Annes Festival, often with repeat visits and adjudicating classes ranging from Tuba solo, and Irish Folk-song, to barbershop choir, operatic solo, piano, strings, brass and chamber music and just about everything in between.

Head of Section: Mrs Jackie Mumford

PLEASE NOTE:

- a) The Rules and Regulations of this Festival must be carefully observed.
- b) You are advised not to perform to photocopied music. Please remember to bring a copy of your own choice music for the adjudicator.
- c) There is no official Festival accompanist for this section.
- d) Conductors are reminded that they are NOT permitted to sing with their choirs.
- e) The doors for the audience will open half an hour before the start of each day. First session performers only may have earlier entry.
