

WOODWIND & RECORDER

Adjudicator: Anne Hodgson

ANNE HODGSON was a Royal College of Music Junior Exhibitioner and went on to study with Ann Cherry at Trinity College of Music and Averill Williams at Guildhall School of Music & Drama. After many years as a freelance performer and teacher in London she is now based in Sussex, where she teaches at Brighton College, Lancing College and Burgess Hill School for Girls.

Anne is a trustee of the British Flute Society, and appears regularly at their biennial convention. She is a founder member and Bass flute player with Sussex Flutes Quintet, giving regular recitals and Flute Days for adults, students and teachers. Anne performs regularly with harpist Sally Course in the Zaffre Flute and Harp Duo. She plays with the Sussex based chamber ensemble MAS, with whom she recorded the Suite for Flute and Strings by Jeremy Dale Roberts in January 2014, and with New Harmonie Wind ensemble, working in hospices delivering music workshops to those with dementia and receiving palliative care. She is also a keen charity fundraiser and cyclist - in February 2014 she cycled 500km around Rajasthan in aid of Great Ormond Street Hospital.

Anne has been a BIFF adjudicator since 2009 and is very much looking forward to coming to Portsmouth again.
